Street Tree Revival

Urban Wood

All trees have a life cycle, so we are making every effort to save the trees we can from ending up in the waste stream. When trees need to be removed from the Urban Forest, we preserve their natural beauty and also limit carbon emissions by salvaging trees lost during storms, disease, or normal senescence and recycling this wood into usable raw lumber. Our urban wood offers a story unlike any other, as it brought back to life... A true Street Tree Revival®.
